Am I Covered

Q: I had a small boat and motor which I kept at a friend's river cottage. Last week it was stolen by someone who cut through the mooring chain. Is this theft covered by my homeowners policy?

A: The homeowners policy does not apply to theft losses away from the described premises for watercraft, their furnishings, equipment and outboard motors or trailers. In this instance, the boat would be away from the premises described in your policy and, therefore, there would be no coverage.

Q: Like most other people who have workmen's compensation insurance at work, I don't know what this covers. Can you briefly tell me?

A: Workmen's compensation insurance basically covers the medical expense and a portion of the lost salary which results from work related injuries and some diseases. The Workmen's Compensation Statute of Virginia covers the benefits you are entitled to. Generally speaking, any accidental injury at work is covered and the necessary medical examination is paid by your workmen's compensation carrier. You are entitled to 66 and ⅔ of your average weekly wage up to a maximum allowance of $80.00, but there is a waiting period of one week where disability periods are less than six weeks long. You are entitled to the same benefits for those occupational diseases covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act. The medical expense would cover the necessary charges by a physician as well as any extra services related to this such as hospital and nursing expenses as required.

Selected As Outstanding Young Women

The young women named below have been selected as Outstanding Young Women of America for 1973, according to Ms. Pandora Benis, director for this national awards program.

Nominated by: Delta Zeta, BSP, Appomattox, Va., Jean Muir Cawthorne, Route 4, Box 477-A, Appomattox, Va.; Carolyn Anderson Coleman, P. O. Box 636, Appomattox, Va.

These women are now being considered for further state and national awards. This fall, fifty of the young women nominated for the Outstanding Young Women of America program – one from each state – will be named as their state's Outstanding Young Women of America for 1973 will be selected. The National Winners will be presented at a special awards ceremony to be held this fall in Washington, D. C.

The Outstanding Young Women of America program was conceived – and is today guided – by leaders of the nation's major women's organizations. The program's Board of Advisors, composed of the national presidents of women's clubs, is headed by Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The purpose of the Outstanding Young Women of America program is to recognize young women between the ages of 21 and 35 for their exceptional contributions to their professions, communities and country. Nominations for this national awards program are made by women's organizations, churches and alumni associations throughout the country.

A complete biographical sketch of each nominee is included in the annual awards volume, OUTSTANDING YOUNG WOMEN OF AMERICA, which is distributed nationally as a reference publication. The 1973 Awards Volume, scheduled for publication in November, will contain a special introductory message by constance B. Newman, Commissioner, Consumer Product Safety Commission.

Delegate Claude W. Anderson To Head Study Group

As requested by the 1973 Legislature, the Virginia State Crime Commission is initiating a study of the laws relating to the confiscation of motor vehicles used in the commission of certain crimes. This study group will be headed up by Delegate Claude W. Anderson of Buckingham.

Virginia's laws presently provide for confiscation, before trial, of motor vehicles used in the commission of crimes such as transportation of illegal alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs and certain stolen property. These laws have caused a great deal of frustration among law enforcement officials throughout the State. Many Commonwealth's Attorneys have also expressed a dislike for the manner in which they have to function pertaining to these statutes.

It was the feeling of the General Assembly that much consideration ought to be given to all confiscation laws before they are amended or broadened to insure uniformity and insure that constitutional property rights are adequately provided for. Thus, they requested the Crime Commission to study all confiscation laws including the need for uniformity and to examine closely the problems of confiscation and holding of vehicles prior to a finding of guilt by a court of competent jurisdiction in regard to the alleged criminal act which precipitated the confiscation.

In addition to Delegate Anderson, Chairman, the other members of the study group are: Major C. M. Boldin, State Police, Richmond; Chief J. deKoven Bowen, Chief of Police, Charlottesville; Delegate J. Samuel Glasscock, Suffolk; Mr. Reno S. Harp, III, Deputy Atty. General, Richmond; Lt. Joseph Higgins, Richmond Police Department; Mr. Lewis W. Hurst, Executive Director, Virginia State Crime Comm.; Lt. N. B. Rogerson, Norfolk Police Department; Sheriff Garnett A. Shumaker, Jr., Sheriff of Buckingham Co.; Mr. J. B. Wyckoff, Commonwealth's Attorney, Amherst.

This group is to make their report by November 1, 1973. Their first meeting will be held on September 18, 1973, at 10:00 a.m., at the State Capitol in Richmond.

Puritan Pulpit

"A Very Present Help" Psalm 46:1

Covenant blessings are not meant to be looked at only but to be appropriated. Even our Lord Jesus is given to us for our present use. Believer, you do not make use of Christ as you ought to. When you are in trouble why do you not tell Him all your grief? Has He not a sympathizing heart? Can he not comfort and relieve you? No, you are going about to all your friends except your best Friend and telling your tale everywhere except into the bosom of your Lord. Are you burdened with this days sins? Here is a fountain filled with blood. Use it. Has a sense of guilt returned upon you? The pardoning Grace of Jesus may be proved again and again. Come to Him at once for cleansing. Do you deplore your weakness? Then He is your strength. Why not lean upon Him today? Do you feel naked? Come here then soul; put on your robe of Jesus' righteousness. Don't stand looking at it but rather wear it. Strip off your own righteousness and your own fears too. Put on the fair white linen of Christ for it was meant to wear. Do you feel yourself sick? Pull the night veil of prayer and call on the beloved physician. He will give you the comfort that will revive you. You are poor but you have a "Kinsman, a mighty man of wealth".

Let us be simple with him then,
Not backward stiff or cold,
As though our Bethlehem could be;
What Sinai was of old.

Poem

This poem was sent in by Mrs. Charles (Rachel) Richardson who recently returned home from Lynchburg General Hospital where she had surgery on August 9.

WORDS ON WREATHS

If you'll give me some attention
while I'm living
And not leave it all to be given when I'm gone.
It will mean I'll appreciate the giving
And thank you when I cannot later on

A smile, a word of comfort is a pleasure
And it helps to clear the dark skies overhead
And I feel that now 'twill help men in a measure
For I may not know you did it
When I'm dead.

So cheer our friends a little while they're living.
We can find so much to praise,
if we but try,
Our flower of joy that springs from each giving
Is worth a million roses when they die.
